The deliberations highlighted the remarkable literary achievements of Balashouri Reddy Ji. Despite belonging to a non-Hindi-speaking state, he made significant contributions to Hindi literature through novels, short stories, children’s literature, one-act plays, and dramas. His work as a translator played a vital role in bridging Telugu and Hindi literary traditions, as he translated several Telugu novels into Hindi. Additionally, his long editorial tenure of 24 years with Chandamama (Hindi edition) was acknowledged as a major contribution to children’s literature. The webinar successfully fostered academic discussion and literary appreciation, underscoring the importance of cross-linguistic literary contributions in enriching Hindi literature.
